

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Can it be any more clear to the FCC why we need to reverse the trend towards media consolidation?

Is there a more insidious threat to our democracy?

Get tough; guard our democratic way of life!

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
